Amino-D-Tox™

- Supports effective phase II liver detoxification, which is essential to prevent the production of intermediate metabolites that could cause symptoms or sensitivity reactions during a detoxification program.
- Nutritional support for phase II detoxification helps conjugate toxins and prepare them for safe elimination from the body.

Hydrolyzyme™

- Proprietary blend of protease enzymes that helps support efficient digestion and absorption of the protein found in PaleoCleanse Plus™
- Works efficiently to combat the incomplete digestion of protein supplementation
- Shown to digest over 90% of a typical serving of protein within 30 minutes – assists the body in absorbing more protein quickly and efficiently. Faster absorption equals better use of protein.
